Nomad Neanderthal (52') – 4K & HD

FHF / Directed by Rob Hope

A 52' documentary film tracing the enigmatic Neanderthal populations of Northern Europe, as seen through archaeological and anthropological interpretation. Rob Hope follows the fossil trails of the distant nomads from the Channel Islands to southern England, Germany, Belgium and northern France, piecing back their harsh existence within their ancient landscapes for over many tens of thousands of years, long before the rising of the English Channel seas.

Of Men and Animals - impossible careers (5x52') – HD

Stuff Productions / Directed by Amine Bouziane

This is a series about high-risk careers. Those that are unusual and out of the ordinary and about which we know nothing or very little. We follow these adventurers, explorers and other saviors confronted with inextricable situations. They are permanently exposed to danger and risk their lives to complete missions in which they believe.

Reconnecting Education (52' / 90') – HD

Fred Hilgemann Films / Directed by Laure Modesti and Marie Dumont

Our world has been going through mutations so fast that today, an estimated 65% of preschool children will have jobs that do not yet exist. And half of current jobs will be automated in the next 20 years. Our methods of working, communicating and consuming are radically transforming. How can schools not accompany these changes? From Shanghai to San Francisco, passing through Haiti, Liège, Paris and Nairobi, teachers, researchers and educators are inventing new learning methods and carrying out innovative experiments to make schools a place where everyone, regardless of where they come from, can develop their creativity and bloom by reconnecting knowledge and society.

The Invisible Border (52') – HD

Stuff Productions / Directed by Alejandro Quijano

Colombia. Poncho is a serial killer, a hairstylist and the leader of a gang name "Los 13". After he got shot seven times, he needs crutches to get around. In this territory life goes by in the middle of cyclical violence. The consequences of war and violence are the invisible borders: imaginary lines that limit the territories that each gang claims for itself. The invisible border for Poncho is the very entrance of his home: his barbershop. He refuses to cross that line fearing the consequences of his past. Now, considering the extreme difficulty for him to survive in this environment, given his physical condition, he is forced for the first time, to look for a way out of this violent atmosphere and therefore to cross that invisible border. Will he be able to leave his banditry and power behind?

Urbex (52') – HD

Stuff Productions / Directed by Amine Bouziane

They climb towers, monuments and roofs barehanded, they go into underground catacombs or subway tunnels and secretly open pools at night to party before disappearing at dawn. Others confront everything that is forbidden by balancing atop trains and subways speeding along. They are urbexers, a new urban tribe that defies all things forbidden to live in cities but far from the consumerism they impose. Filming planned in France, the United States and Russia.

Art & Culture

Dancehall Revolution (63') – 2017 - HD

Stuff Productions / Directed by Amine Bouziane

Languages available: French

Broadcasters: France O

They are called Admiral T, Kalash, Saik, Keros'n and Sadik. Their clips have been seen millions of times on Youtube. They fill up concert venues in the Caribbean, France, big European cities and world capitals. These artists put down their roots in dancehall culture, but don't exclude integrating other musical elements such as hip-hop, trap, afro, boullion, soca and zouk. They were able to create their own networks and have a loyal, ever-growing audience. Dancehall Revolution offers an immersion in dancehall culture in the French West Indies, Miami and Paris.

Fashioning Religion (52') – 2016 - HD

French Connection / Directed by Julie Valérie Deschênes

Languages available: French & English subtitles

Broadcasters: KTO

How are religious garbs conceived and made? In what way do they reflect the Christian cult regarding the aesthetic of the suavitas of the Church Fathers? This film delves into this passionate, yet little-known, bond between the liturgical world and the contemporary artistic world. The medieval inspirations of Filippo Sorcinelli, the rainbow of Jean-Charles de Castelbajac and the Art Deco chasubles of the Sain-Wandrille monks all embody these combined impetuses in search of beauty. Anne-Sophie is embroidering in silence for future priests, Jean and Gerard are taking care of religious Visitandine fabrics from which they know every single story...

Serge Lifar: A Revolution in Dance (52') – 2016 - HD

French Connection / Directed by Florent Durth & Ivan Kuzmin

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: M-Media

France, renowned for its fondness for the arts, is perhaps best known for its ballet thanks to Ukrainian Serge Lifar. Despite his late start as a serious dancer at 16, Lifar found a place in ballet through his perseverance and unassailable stage presence, even working under Sergei Diaghilev, founder of the Ballets Russes. However, Lifar wasn't just limited to being a star onstage. He also rose to become an influential choreographer, a bonafide celebrity and one of the major figures in the renewal of 20th-century French ballet.

Armenian Shelters (52') – 2016 - HD

Mareterraniu / Directed by Mathieu Proust

Languages available: French

Broadcasters: France 3

In the Turkish district of Hatay remains the very last Armenian village in Turkey. One hundred years ago, the people of Vakif and six other villages around managed to climb on the Dejebel Musa hill to avoid deportation... Today their descendants here and in the village of Anjar in Lebanon are obsessed by the consequences of the Syrian civil war and the rise of fundamentalism close to them. They fear a new genocide which will exterminate their residual communities...

Hostages to Misfortune (52') – 2016 - HD

Agence Cantarane / Directed by Severine Vanel & Pierre-Julien Quiers

Languages available: French & English

Leila, Selim and their 7 children live in Zaatari, a camp for Syrian refugees in Jordan. Filmed over 3 years, this documentary provides an intimate view of their day-to-day life in the camp. Selim, frustrated by enforced idleness, is determined to go back to Syria and fight. How will Leila cope with the birth of her eighth child ? This family story is typical of millions of refugees who did not choose to leave their country and now face the loss of identity and of choice itself.

Romania: The Big Clear-Out (52') – 2017 - HD

Drôle de Trame / Directed by Ruxandra Medrea

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: Public Senat, VRT, SVT, ERR, Al Jazeera English

Romania is known to be one of the most corrupted nations of the EU. Yet it has become the centre stage of one of the most ferocious anti-corruption battles of the last few decades. This radical metamorphosis of Romanian society is mostly the work of a new generation that knew communism when it was young. By what means can this new generation of citizens become a major player in this transformation? This documentary gives us an insider's view of this fight, the only one of the kind in Europe.

Spirits of the Gold Mines in Gengis Khan Country (52') – 2017 - HD

Bagan Films / Directed by Anne-Sylvie Meyza & Benjamin Lauber

Languages available: French

Broadcasters: Ushuaia TV

21st Century Mongolia, the Steppe's new mining Eldorado, is brimming with gold mines inhabited by spirits from the ages who have been disturbed by the destruction and enslavement of their dwellings. Only the Buddhist Shamans and Lamas can calm the anger of these formidable entities and clean the blemishes left by the miners. However, not all of them have agreed to go along with the booming mining development...

Guatemala: The Dictatorship's Disappeared (60') – 2016 - HD

CDP / Directed by Claudio Zulian

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: Arte

The dark days of civil war and dictatorship in Guatemala led to the death and disappearance of over 200,000 people between 1960 and 1996, according to the UN. In 2012, following a complaint filed by a group of families before the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, the Guatemalan government was sentenced to provide reparations, including the production and distribution of a film about missing people. When the State refused to cooperate, the families of victims decided to make the film themselves.

The Greven Mystery (52') – 2017 - HD

Lucien / Flair Productions / Directed by Claudia Collao

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: OCS, LCP

Alfred Greven is still today an unsolved mystery for everyone. Who was this head of the Continental films, a French movie studio founded with Third-Reich money whose mission was one of propaganda but who ended up producing the most subversive masterpieces of French Cinema? Greven's intentional disappearance after the war and his silence until his death in 1973 maintain a certain mystery around this elusive historical figure. To date, no photos or other record of him are available. Yet the 40 films produced by Continental Films remain.

It's Getting Dark (52') – 2017 - HD

Les Films du Sillage / Directed by Olga Kravets

Languages available: Russian & English subtitles

Broadcasters: LCP

DocuTIFF 2017: Best DEBUT Film Award

How can you have a normal family life when one of your parents is considered to be "an enemy of the State," a Soviet term that is coming back in use by the Russian authorities full force and which is once again insinuating itself into the lives of many Russians? For two years, Olga Kravets followed the daily lives of four prisoners' families with young children: before, during and after a trial carried out for strictly political reasons. Their stories are a chronology of repression, intimately told through the daily routine of these families.

Châteauneuf-du-Pape, A Success Story (52') – 2016 - HD

Amda Productions / Directed by Vincent Hérisse & Eric Erastotène

Languages available: French

Subtitles available: Arabic, Chinese, Dutch, English, German, Japanese, Korean, Brazilian Portuguese, Romanian, Russian, Vietnamese

Broadcasters: France 3, WineLife Channel

Châteauneuf-du-Pape is a Provencal village of 2,500 inhabitants similar to many other villages but famous worldwide. Châteauneuf-du-Pape wines can be found on the menus of the greatest restaurants and the most renowned wine merchants worldwide. How did this small village of the Rhône valley manage to pull it off? Is the local produce so special? Can its history explain the success of its wines? Do the Popes of Avignon have anything to do with the success of this PDO that has reached the pinnacles of wine-making excellence? What is the secret of Châteauneuf-du-Pape?

Pizzas (52') – 2016 - HD

Armoni Productions / Directed by Jean-Louis André

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: France 3, Tele Quebec, Emirates

Marseille's anchovy-cheese, the Bronx's Neapolitan, Naples' margarita... From the three cradles of pizza, this film is retying the knots of a worldwide history giving us the opportunity to gaze upon the glimmering lights of Times Square, explore the back alleys of Naples and land in front of a pizza van— an invention from Marseilles. There, we meet with loud mouth pizza chefs who have been mucking in, sometimes for five generations.

Mercantour: A Shared Paradise (52') – 2016 - HD

Cocottes Minute / Directed by Caroline Audibert & Olivier Theron

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: France 3, Rai

In the Mercantour National Park, there is a surprising problem for natural parks; cohabitation between wild species and man. Such is the case of Christian, a shepherd, for whom the wolf's return challenges ancestral pastoral practices. Alexandrine, a beekeeper, has just given breathing room to endangered species in the valleys, and faces genuine wild alpine bees. Cédric, wildlife photographer, slips deeper into the wild world where we will discover their great rites...

Seven thousand years ago, peoples living on the Atlantic shores erected thousands of gigantic stones in Western Europe. A millennium before the first cuneiform alphabets of Mesopotamia or Egyptian hieroglyphics, they engraved stylized signs that has long remained a mystery. An international team of has been able to decipher this original language, shared by all the Atlantic cultures during the Neolithic. Based on new techniques of aerial and underwater surveys, as well as on spectacular 3D reconstructions, this discovery changes our look on European Prehistory forever.

Voices from Chernobyl (86') / 1:55 / 5.1

La Huit / Red Lion / KGP / 2016 / Directed by Paul Cruchten

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: Arte

Based on the novel "Voices from Chernobyl" by Svetlana Alexievich - Nobel Prize winner for Literature in 2015

This film does not deal with Chernobyl, but rather with the world of Chernobyl, about which we know very little. Eyewitness reports have survived: scientists, teachers, journalists, couples, children... They tell of their former lives, then of the catastrophe. Their voices become a long supplication. A rare visual experience, the film invites us to a journey into the human soul.
