TRAVEL & DISCOVERY

Gansu, beyond appearances (52') – 2016 – HD

Landes Productions / Directed by Patrice Landes

Languages available: French

The province of Gansu, locked between Mongolia and Tibet, was once a mandatory passage on the famous Silk Road, but it's also a land where Buddhist fervor inspires in men the courage needed to sculpt rock at vertiginous heights. It is a territory rich in legends and myths where nature unites with faith and echoes its rich, several millennia long history, silencing for eternity the mystery of their vanished civilization.

Mustang: The Kingdom of Peasant Painters (52') – 2015 - HD

Via Decouvertes / Directed by Corinne Glowacki

Languages available: French & English

Broadcasters: France 5, RTS, RTV Slovenija

Long closed to foreigners due to its proximity to Chinese Tibet, the treasures of the kingdom of Nepal were discovered ten years ago. Luigi Fieni, a renowned Italian painter of sacred art, was put in charge of restoring the temple paintings of the capital. Faced with the enormity of the challenge, he had the idea of asking local farmers for their help. From simple farmers, he turned them into artists, as they gradually rediscovered the culture of their ancestors.
